AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Corey W. Edmunds is a Principal of Boeckermann Grafstrom & Mayer, LLC.

With more than 20 years of public accounting experience, Corey specializes in providing income tax and accounting services to closely-held businesses and their owners. He serves a wide range of clients, including contractors and construction; franchise operations; manufacturers and distributors; professional services firms; real estate developers; restaurants and hospitality businesses; and transportation and logistics companies.

Leveraging his years of experience serving a diverse range of industries, Corey is skilled in handling complex tax situations. He provides a range of business and executive tax planning and compliance services, including consolidated group tax filings; IRS and state tax problem resolution; multi-state taxation; and international taxation. Corey also assists clients with business advisory and strategic planning services, including entity selection; real estate acquisitions and dispositions; corporate restructuring and succession planning; and succession planning and owner exit strategies. Continually bringing fresh insight and solutions to address clients' needs and challenges, Corey thrives on helping clients work through difficult and complex tax situations.
