Accord Financial, Inc. Adds Director of Finance

Accord Financial, Inc.—a provider of distinctive senior debt solutions to companies in transition—is proud to announce the addition of a new Director of Finance, Alexandra (Alex) Lewis.

Alex comes to Accord from Charlotte, NC where she was the Accounting Manager for a global manufacturing company. In that role, she managed a team of eight accountants in various roles, oversaw all day-to-day accounting and financial reporting, and was point person for external and internal audits. Alex boasts a strong background in finance, performing a variety of roles and utilizing numerous financial software platforms with previous employers. She earned her CPA after graduating Cum Laude with a Bachelors of Business Administration from Roanoke College in Salem, VA.

As Director of Finance, Alex will provide value to Accord's clients by supervising and managing the overall financial and back office operations, as well as all the accounting and production of reporting. Accord is known for providing excellent client service, and under Alex's leadership, will continue that tradition.
