

Aims

In order to achieve our mission and make our contribution to the local community HTP Apprenticeship College has set ourselves strategic objectives based around four themes. They are;

Extending participation in learning by young people and increasing achievement

- To encourage young people to continue in learning and achieve their full potential.
- To bring back into learning those young people who are disengaged.

Extending adult participation in learning and increasing achievement

- To make adults more aware of the availability and benefits of learning.
- To make learning more accessible and relevant to adult learners so they can achieve their full potential while at HTP and thereafter.
- To provide comprehensive approach to tackling basic skill needs.

Increasing the engagement of employers in workforce development

- To agree and implement a co-ordinated HTP workforce development strategy.
- To ensure HTP learning provision meets the needs of employers and their people.

Raising the quality, effectiveness and efficiency of learning provision

- To raise the quality of learning available through HTP.
- To develop the learning infrastructure.
