A Wealth of Experience

Schimmel offers a bespoke service to its customers, and we go that extra mile. Our family owned business has a proud reputation for service and quality products.

We have recently relocated to larger premises outside Omagh, with a high standard EEC production factory in Europe, producing premium products for an expanding market. We have taken great interest in the development of new products for our customers and in tailoring these to their exact requirements.

We have supported the growing pizza industry for over 25 years and have gained a wealth of valued experience with different products and are happy to offer guidance on products or pizza matters.

Schimmel have always offered a wide range of exceptional products including our exclusive pork pepperoni, beef pepperoni, fabulous salami and hams all made to the highest specification and highest meat content. However, In 1994 the company diversified to specifically cater for the increasing demand from the pizza industry, cornering this niche of the market with our quality and expertise.

An Extensive Range of Products

Schimmel currently supply up to 95% of all pizza toppings in Northern Ireland as well as catering for major wholesalers and manufacturers of convenience foods across Ireland. The rationale behind Schimmel is to offer our customers superior products with unrivalled quality at competitive prices.

If you require a specific product we currently do not list we are happy to source for you.

Customer Service

We cater for both the commercial and general public markets and our customers can order directly through our website at a touch of a button.

Our Fleet

All our delivery vehicles are refrigerated with temperature control which are fully tracker fitted to service the needs of our products. To ensure fresh delivery and quality from the warehouse to your door.
