

Case study - Lowe House Medical Centre

The Project

Lowe House Medical Centre

What we did

There was a large opening which had two separate entrances. Rotec provided two single doors and an overpanel which was all bolted together and installed as one complete unit.

