On Entering Corbar Road from Long Hill

Corbar Bank is at the brow of the hill and is the second house, on the right, after passing the junction with Marlborough Road.

Directions from the North West (Whaley Bridge A5004)

Enter Buxton down the aptly named 'Long Hill' A5004. After the Lee Wood Hotel (on the right), take the first left turn, into Corbar Road.

Directions from the North East (Chapel En Le Frith A6)

Follow the A6 through Fairfield (beware the speed camera) into Buxton and continue straight ahead (second exit, signed to Town Centre) at the first roundabout. Pass under the railway viaduct and take the second exits at both of the next two roundabouts (signed to the Rail Station). Continue past the station (and the speed cameras) to a further roundabout and go right (second exit, signed Leek A53); then follow signs towards Whaley Bridge A5004. This is Manchester Road (also known as Long Hill) and it leads you around a right hand bend, past the unmistakable domed University of Derby building; take the second right turn into Corbar Road.

Directions from the South East (Bakewell A6)

As you emerge from Ashwood Dale into the outskirts of Buxton, Morrison's Supermarket will be on your right. At the roundabout, go straight on (second exit) and continue on the A6, to a second roundabout and turn left on the first exit (signed to Town Centre). Pass under the railway viaduct and take the second exits at both of the next two roundabouts (signed to the Rail Station). Continue past the station (and the speed cameras) to a further roundabout and go right (second exit, signed Leek A53); then follow signs towards Whaley Bridge A5004. This is Manchester Road (also known as Long Hill) and it leads you around a right hand bend, past the unmistakable domed University of Derby building; take the second right turn into Corbar Road.

Directions from the South (Ashbourne A515)

The A515 (London Road) will lead you through Upper Buxton, past the Market Place (and the Town Hall), then, via several pedestrian crossings, downhill towards Buxton's main shopping area. The Crescent and the old Buxton Baths will be visible on your left as you start to climb uphill again towards the Palace Hotel. At the roundabout, turn left (first exit, signed Leek A53); then follow signs towards Whaley Bridge A5004. This is Manchester Road (also known as Long Hill) and it leads you around a right hand bend, past the unmistakable domed University of Derby building; take the second right turn into Corbar Road.

Directions from the West and South West (Leek A53 and Macclesfield A54)

The A53 and A54 combine into Leek road as they head downhill through Burbage, into Buxton. At the traffic lights (at Burbage Church), continue straight on (now on St John's Road). Passing the Pavilion Gardens and the back of the Opera House on your right, bear left at St John's Church (with the Dome of the University of Derby ahead) onto the Manchester Road (signed to Whaley Bridge A5004 and also known as Long Hill). Take the second right turn into Corbar Road.

Directions from the Railway Station

By car, turn right out of the station to a roundabout at the Palace Hotel. On right (second exit signed Leek A53) then follow signs towards Whaley Bridge A5004. This is Manchester Road (also known as Long Hill) and it leads you around a righthand bend, past the unmistakable domed University of Derby building take the second right turn into Corbar Road.
