The re-opening of this world class 3 Michelin star restaurant took place over the Summer. We went to film Clare Smyth for Caterer and Hotelkeeper Magazine. Great insight, take a look at the Blog for more.

Two Chocolatiers, one with and one without . . .

We decided to re-visit two chocolatiers and patissiers from a couple of years ago. The William Curley video has tipped over one million views for his truffle masterclass. So we thought it would be interesting to follow that up with his Fôret Noire. Damian Allsop talks about his inspiration and philosophy in relation to his dairy free, infused spring water chocolates. Both all about craft and artistry.

Damian Allsop - Chocolatier extraordinaire!

New Website

Finally here and packed with work year to date including work from photographers and videographers located throughout the UK. Take a look at About and see who's located where. Easy to navigate and clear about 'what we do', with lots of ideas as to how imagery can work best for your business.
