- ◆ Our in-house team is able to cater for any occasion.

We think that you will struggle to find a more perfect location at such affordable pricing but don't take our word for it...

We look forward to welcoming you.

ORDSALL HALL

Ordsall Hall - Salford's Grade 1 listed Tudor manor house – was first recorded in 1177.

Since then, it has been home to medieval gentry, Tudor nobility, Catholics loyal to the crown, butchers, farmers, an Earl, an artist, priests, scout troops, mill workers, cows and several ghosts!

With a convenient location close to the centre of Manchester and a stone's throw away from Salford Quays, Ordsall Hall provides a beautiful and inspiring location for that special event.

Facilities

- A 500 year old Great Hall with a seating capacity of 90
- Two meeting rooms
- Two acres of beautifully landscaped grounds
- 48 parking spaces
- Small café
- On-site shop
- Flipchart, projector and interactive whiteboard
- PA system and an induction loop

Team building

we offer a wide range of activities for you and your team to take part in.

See page 13 for more details.

TEAM BUILDING

Looking to have a fun & exciting day out?

Develop team spirit?

If the answer is yes, then the Helly Hansen Watersports Centre or Ordsall Hall could be the place for you!

We have experience in organising tailor - made activities to suit individual needs, including team development. Our knowledge of the outdoors, watersports, heritage, horticulture and arts and crafts is second to none. Combine this with our purpose built facilities and experienced, qualified teaching staff to guarantee a fun and memorable experience for all.

If you are looking for an activity-based programme to develop transferable skills such as teamwork, communication, co-operation and leadership, our tailor made programmes use challenges and the fun of outdoor activities to meet your requirements.

Give something back...

We also have a range of horticulture related activities that lend themselves to companies who want 'to give something back.' Your teams could help us to keep the gardens beautiful for all our visitors to enjoy.
