

Arielle de Rothschild

Member of CARE International Supervisory Board

Arielle de Rothschild is a Managing Director at Rothschild & Co and founded the Emerging Markets department following 10 years at Lazard Frères (1989-1999). She specialises in government advisory affairs, privatisations, and mergers and acquisitions.

Arielle's engagement in matters concerning developing countries began during her years at university, where she campaigned in favour of disadvantaged children for "Libraries in the Streets", teaching children how to read and write. She joined "Traditions pour Demain" (Traditions for Tomorrow) in 1986, an association dedicated to defending the Amerindian population in Central America, and is currently an Administrator and Treasurer. She joined CARE France in 1997 as Administrator and became Vice President in 2004, then President in 2007. In 2004, she joined the Board of Directors of CARE International and took on the role of Vice President of CARE International in 2012. She currently serves on the Boards of Groupe Lucien Barrière, Imerys SA, Rothschild & Co and Electrica SA. Arielle holds a PhD in Economic Sciences from the Institute for Political Studies in Paris, where she wrote her thesis under the direction of former French Prime Minister Raymond Barre. She also holds a DEA in Money Bank Finance from Paris II University, as well as a Master's Degree in Econometrics from the Universidad Autonoma of Madrid. In 2008, Arielle was named "Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur".
