

Our Defining Moments

1999

Nouvelles Frontieres (new frontieres), a reputed tour operator from France, appoints Travel Scope as their incoming DMC for FIT programs to India. It sets the foundation for Travel Scope's journey in inbound tourism to India.

2002

Joan Peterson (Gingko Press – Madison WI), author culinary expert appoints Travel Scope to organise Joan's research trip for her culinary guide book Eat Smart in India. We have since collaborated with Joan and curated several culinary adventures across North and Southern India.

2003

Travel Scope, makes a major breakthrough. Asia Transpacific Journeys a Travel and Leisure award winning boutique tour operator from USA, (now rechristened as ATJ) appoints Travel Scope to handle custom programs and group journeys.

2005

We venture into the Australian market . Travel Indo China a boutique tour operator, now re-branded as Insider Journeys appoints Travel Scope as their exclusive handling partners to handle specially curated small group journeys and handmade holidays for FIT's.

2005

Our first opportunity to handle affinity travel groups starts with a program for TUFTS alumni for the Pushkar festival in Rajasthan. Subsequently we curated special travel programs for Brown University, Harvard Museum of Natural History, Bowers Museum of Cultural Art, WWF USA.

2006

Andrew Harper Travel, launches their Private Jet Signature Trips to India for their Q Club members. Travel Scope has successfully handled their private jet trips to destinations across North India in the year 2006 and 2007 and to Southern India in 2009.

2007

The year 2007 earmarks the beginning of a new journey with Mindful Journeys. Over the past ten years we have promoted soulful journeys across the Indian subcontinent, in partnership with Regine Oesch Aiyar, founder of Mindful Journeys and Dr. Ashok Bedi a specialist in Jungian studies.

2008

We curated wildlife tours for donors and patrons of WWF USA. These trips showcased a diversity of wildlife parks that included Kaziranga National Park to the Central Indian jungles, led by then President of WWF India, Dr. Divyabhanu Singh Chavada and author of Story of The Asiatic Lions.

2008

The year of global financial crisis, brought an opportunity to collaborate with AEGON a Dutch Insurance giant and their India partners RELIGARE. Travel Scope curated a special program for the delegates of AEGON worldwide under the leadership of Tom Katana a retired US Navy Seal and a corporate trainer.

2009

Travel Scope embarks on a journey of consolidation and growth in the US Luxury Travel market. We entered into a representation agreement with Passages of Distinction, a reputed marketing and representation company in the US, founded by Sari Freeman.

Beating trends in the same year, Travel Scope also collaborated with IN-FOCUS WEALTH MANAGEMENT from Australia for their annual conference held in Delhi, followed by a reward trip to Agra and Jaipur.

2010

Travel Scope was chosen to organise the INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON EXPERIMENTAL ROBOTICS held at the Imperial Hotel in Delhi chaired by professors from Stamford and U-Penn.

2011

We partnered with Frosch Travel (Private Client Services) and Robb Report magazine to organise a trip for the founder members of the Robb Report Club hosted by Oberoi Hotels.

2013

Travel Scope was awarded by the Government of India, Department of Tourism for growth in revenues earned through tourism.

The same year, we forged a partnerships with EXCLUSIVE RESORTS, a Denver based company and to curate exclusive private jet trips for members of their ONCE IN A LIFE TIME club.

2014

Peggy Markel founder of PMCA (Peggy Markel Culinary Adventures) and Travel Scope, curated a unique culinary adventure through Rajasthan. Peggy's deep love for exploring a country's culture through it's cuisine and her passion to delve deep into it's nuances have been an inspiration for us.

2015

Babson Business School selected Travel Scope, to put together a program for senior members of the Babson's Global Advisory board. This was a complex program that required careful planning and co-ordinating meetings, special events, tours, activities, fine dining experiences.

Linda Swain, founder of Swain Productions collaborated with Travel Scope to shoot for Tapping In Amercian television show presented by Linda. Travel Scope has been the exclsive DMC partner in India, for Swain Destinations since 2010

Our longstanding partnerships and a diverse portfolio of clients has enabled us to create and deliver some of the most unique travel experiences in the Indian sub-continent. Our core strength is to create specially designed private travel experiences for individual travellers and special interest groups. Our client list includes a cross section of boutique to high-end travel operators and independent travel professionals.

Contact Us

215, Qutab Plaza,
DLF Phase 1, Gurugram,
Haryana - 122002, India

+91 124 499 9499

contact@travelscopeindia.com
mohan@travelscopeindia.com

www.travelscopeindia.com

TravelScopeIndia

travelscopeindia

travel-scope-india

Travel Scope India