Open gardens and pop ups in village houses - noon to 4.30pm

Most houses and some gardens are fully accessible or have a small number of steps. Please be careful on slippery surfaces, particularly if the weather is wet.

1 27, Albert Avenue BD18 4NT: A hedgehog-friendly wildlife garden with a hedgehog expert in residence. There will also be hedgehog-themed crafts.

2 16, Dallam Avenue BD18 4PA: Last year's winning garden features flowers, fruit and late summer colour with contrasting areas to front and rear. Also open for Shiatsu massage.

3 47, Albert Road BD18 4NS: The garden of a stone maker's house features succulents, herbs and exotics. Hear stories of local connections to the succulents and also learn about the house.

4 21, Albert Road BD18 4NR: This mature site attracts birds, bees and other wildlife and includes both planted beds and pots. Cards, coasters, calendars and more for sale.

5 9, Albert Road BD18 4NR: Cacti and buns on sale for Water Aid plus a vintage jewellery stall. Also, find out more about Forest of Saltaire as this project is launched.

6 7, Albert Road BD18 4NR: A shingle front garden with a sleeper-edged bed. The back is home to a collection of plants in pots.

7 3, Albert Road BD18 4NR: Relaxed side and back areas with a range of plants in pots. Gardened on the principle of 'survival of the fittest', with French and Japanese influences.

8 30, Mary Street BD18 4PQ: This densely planted yard makes the most of its sunny aspect and features climbers, perennials and annuals in pots.

9 37, Helen Street BD18 4PH: Inside and out, find a range of small to medium sized handcrafted wood goods for the home and garden. A video and handouts show the production of larger pieces of furniture and further information is available.

10 Wash House Gardens, Caroline Street BD18 4QA: These gardens, where the Wash House once stood, are beautifully maintained by Saltaire volunteers and Veg on the Edge. Music provided by a three-piece acoustic band playing modern, classic and alt-country and featuring Richard Babington, Lisa Mallaghan and Dan McClade.
