

The Redway House

Whether you're snuggling up by a roaring fire while the snow piles up outside or relaxing out on our deck watching wild turkeys meander across the field, The Redway House is your escape from the hustle and bustle of modern living. Take a leisurely walk on one of our many private trails throughout the 114 acres of forestland. Pick herbs from our gardens and prepare a five-star meal in our well-equipped kitchen. Peaceful, pet-friendly, and relaxing.

Only ten minutes from Tanglewood, just a few minutes from The Rockwell Museum, Chesterwood, and The Berkshire Garden Center.

The area is bustling with outdoor venues throughout the Summer. Experience the classic sounds of Tanglewood as they reflect off the Berkshires, to the magic that unfolds on Jacob's Pillow's outdoor stage.

In October, witness the breath-taking New England foliage as the warm days of summer slip into the crisp golden days of autumn.

Book The Redway House the first weekend in December and participate in bringing Norman Rockwell's famous 1967 Stockbridge Main Street At Christmas to life. In the Winter, enjoy a variety of area ski areas.

Walk our trails in the cool of spring and watch nature come back to life after the harsh New England Winter.

Prepare a 5-Star meal in our well-equipped kitchen. Stove/oven, dishwasher, washer/dryer, microwave, portable ice maker, Keurig Coffee Maker with K-Cups, toaster oven, toaster, electric skillet, classic waffle maker, blender, induction cooktop, and a salad spinner. Cabinets equipped with Olive Oil, and a variety of herbs and spices. Pick fresh herbs and mint from our gardens.
