About us

LawMate UK are the exclusive British distributors of LawMate advanced covert surveillance technology. We provide law enforcement grade, high-definition video and audio recording solutions.

The LawMate brand has been providing equipment for true surveillance and security professionals for over 25 years. Our product portfolio includes a wide range of covert cameras, digital video recorders and counter surveillance equipment.

High-definition footage is easily obtained from a variety of everyday objects such as the coffee cup camera, covert body-worn cameras and key fob video recorders to name but a few.

Our innovative product range is trusted by government and law enforcement agencies nationwide, including police forces both domestic and overseas, the Home Office, private investigators, and the Association of British Investigators (ABI).
