

CT CMSA Chapter invites you to our:

Wednesday April 13, 2016 Presentation:

The Art of Healing

PRESENTED BY:

Bernie Siegel, MD

Well known American author, retired pediatric surgeon, exceptional speaker who embraces living and dying,
encompassing mind and body.

*"Being a survivor doesn't mean being strong- it's telling people when you need a meal or a ride, company, whatever. It's paying attention to heart wisdom, feelings, not living a role, but having unique, authentic life, Qualities of survivors."
"You cannot fail at being yourself...." Bernie quotes*

Location :

Gaylord Hospital Brooker Lecture Hall, 50 Gaylord Farm Road Wallingford, Ct. 06492
Phone: 203-284-2800

Link to directions: <http://www.gaylord.org/Contact-Us/Locations>

Follow the yellow event signs to Brooker Lecture Hall.

$ 20.00 for members, $ 25 for non-members
Buffet featuring salad with grilled chicken and soup.
CCM CEU's 2.0 pending/ NASW,CT CEC's 2.0 pending

Times: 5:30-6:00pm: Networking/Bufferet
6:00-6:10pm: CMSA chapter business
6:00 pm presentation

- Unconscious and mind body relationship
- Survivor personality
- Self- healing versus spontaneous remissions, immune competency
- Healing impact; childhood experience, parental love and disease states
- Power of imagery in healing- Dreams and diagnosis
- Illness versus diagnosis....."Accept, Retreat, Surrender"

Go to www.CMSACT.org to Event Registration. Call Bobbi Rosenkranz, President at 203-447-4899 with questions.

This Educational Series activity is pending approval for 2.0 CCM-CEU's by the Commission for Case Manager Certification (CCMC) Disclosure: CT CMSA has no material or other financial interest with any healthcare related business that may be mentioned in this educational program.