

Vectis Services Lodge No 9969 Consecration

Saturday 16th March 2019, tiling at 13.30hrs
Cowes Yacht Haven, Isle of Wight

Preparation for the Consecration of the Vectis Services Lodge No 9969 is nearing completion. Uniquely, it will take place in Cowes Yacht Haven (CYH) which is just 100m from the Cowes RedJet terminal. For this very special event a lodge room will be built inside CYH and dining will be set out immediately adjacent.

It is possible to build for a maximum of 210 seats and the Founders and the Provincial Consecration Team have naturally had some priority booking until now. There are now some places available for anyone, Master Mason and above, who wishes to attend.

You can book via www.squareevents.org where all the details you will need to know are shown.

Places will be snapped-up quickly. If you have never attended a Consecration this is an opportunity not to be missed or, if you have, this unusual setting, with views over the Marina from the mezzanine bar and long verandas, will add to the enjoyment of a great occasion.

Will South Islanders outnumber North Islanders.....?
Another wonderful H&IOW spectacular in prospect.

Masonic Family Service of Thanksgiving
Evensong at Winchester Cathedral
Sunday 10 March 2019 at 3.30 pm

This Thanksgiving Service for Freemasons, their families and friends is to recognise the 150th Anniversary of the amalgamation of the Masonic Province of Hampshire and the Masonic Province of Isle of Wight and to demonstrate to local VIPs, dignitaries, and the public at large, the strength of Freemasonry in Hampshire and Isle of Wight. The service will be incorporated in the Evensong service at the Cathedral and so the public will attend and join with our brethren, their families and friends in this special event.

I do hope that you will support the service with your family and friends, and I would ask you, to actively promote the event and encourage the Brethren to support it, thus making it a memorable and auspicious occasion for all.

Brethren should wear their Masonic collars to demonstrate their pride in being a member of the Province celebrating its 150th anniversary.

The Provincial Grand Master and his Cabinet are looking forward to seeing you and your families at this special service.
