Does the Museum Really Come Alive at Night? Find out at the Milwaukee Public Museum's First-Ever Adult Sleepover

Milwaukee – July 12, 2016 – Are you looking to spend some quality time with friends? Want the perfect date night? Planning an outing for your alumni group? Or just need a kid-free evening? Attend the Milwaukee Public Museum's first-ever adult sleepover and discover what really happens during a night at the Museum!

Visitors will experience MPM like they never have before when adults 21 and older spend the night on the Museum floors. This exciting adventure gives sleepover guests the freedom to have their ideal museum evening -- kid-free --with tours, curator chats, films in the Dome Theater, and exhibit-based programming.

"MPM has been offering overnights for children ages 6-12 for decades," said Hillary Olson, Vice President, Community and Audience Engagement, MPM. "They're very popular and for years our adult fans have asked to get in on the fun. We're incredibly happy to be able to throw an adult sleepover with activities geared towards their interests, like MPM's Exposed tour which features some of the scandalous stories behind the objects and exhibits. There will also be drinks, an all-night lounge to chat and meet people as well as early riser yoga."

MPM's Adult Sleepover begins at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, September 23 and ends at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 24. Tickets for the sleepover are $115 per person and include admission and programming, appetizer stations available throughout the evening, two drink tickets, a late night snack, and continental breakfast with a morning mimosa. Registration ends Friday, September 9 and reservations are required.
