A case study of ARC’s evolution in value-based models, this presentation traces the progress, successes and challenges of working with third-party payers from the perspective of someone admittedly skeptical of their motives. It will address quality measures, risk adjustment, and cost of care as means of quantifying and rewarding success. This is presented as a backdrop for further discussion of models for working with MA payers in value-based arrangements.

2:15 p.m. – 2:50 p.m.	Improving Access in 52 Simple Steps

Jon Winders, Chief Financial Officer, North Bend Medical Center, Inc.

It seems contradictory to improve access to care when value based initiatives place increasing burden on providers to click more buttons, select the right HCC codes, and think about quality. We will discuss North Bend Medical Center's approaches to satisfying increasing demand while keeping our providers happily engaged.
