

Bettye McLaurin, CRIS
Claims Coordinator

Raised in Arizona, Bettye began her insurance career in San Diego in 1978. She joined a major local agency, Robson, Cavignac & Associates, in 1984 and became its Claim Manager. Bettye joined Cavignac & Associates in 1996 and became its Claim Coordinator.

Bettye has long-standing relationships with insurance adjusters and clients alike. She is an optimist, maintains a positive attitude, a sense of humor, and is always receptive to clients' needs at time of loss. Bettye holds the Construction Risk & Insurance Specialist (CRIS) designation.

Bettye's family is her passion. A proud grandmother of three, her immediate family now includes her three dogs, Annie, Oakley, and Tazzy. Over the years Bettye has volunteered for local agencies including the Aids Program and Special Olympics, and has worked with seniors, the disabled, and immigrants. During the last 12 years Bettye has become an avid world traveler, finding adventure in over 25 countries and occasional cruises to the Caribbean.
