

infinity

nimlok

Infinity is the UK's fastest growing data centre operator. They required a clean, crisp stand that reflected their corporate colours. As hospitality was key we created three different meeting areas on the stand including an enclosed area for longer discussions. To convey their messaging we integrated a large plasma and high impact panoramic graphics of their data centres. iPads on the counter were used to show their eco brochure.