

CONSTRUCTION ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS

This course will provide an understanding of environmental laws and obligations relevant to activities on a construction site including sources of environmental obligations, dealing with environmental incidents, who is responsible for environmental compliance and how to minimise risk.

INTRODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

- ✚ Case studies and environmental prosecutions (or why we are here)
- ✚ Key environmental laws
- ✚ Environmental approvals and permits

UNDERSTANDING YOUR ENVIRONMENTAL OBLIGATIONS ON SITE

- ✚ Conditions of approvals
- ✚ Environmental management plans
- ✚ Contractual obligations
- ✚ On site tips and traps

DEALING WITH ENVIRONMENTAL INCIDENTS

- ✚ Who is responsible?
- ✚ Environmental duties
- ✚ Notifying environmental incidents
- ✚ Requirements for managing environmental risk on site

MANAGING YOUR RISK

- ✚ Understanding your risk at law and in contract
- ✚ Who are the regulators?
- ✚ Powers of regulators
- ✚ Dos and don'ts on a construction site
- ✚ What if the worst happens?

ASSESSMENT

- ✚ The course is awareness only with no requirements for written documents or workshops and focuses on brief presentations, group discussion and visual aids. Questions and discussions of specific issues with presenter and group are encouraged.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Anyone working on a project or construction site that will have an impact on the environment particularly the following:

- ✚ Site Supervisors
- ✚ Sub-Contractors
- ✚ Heavy equipment operators
- ✚ Project Managers
- ✚ Construction Managers
- ✚ Site Environmental Representatives

LOCATION

- ✚ Queensland Civil Industry Training Centre | Hi-Tech Court, Eight Mile Plains QLD 4113

START TIME

- ✚ 8:30am – 11:30am (3 hour course)

COST

- ✚ CCF QLD Members $240
- ✚ Non CCF QLD Members $270

BRISBANE

11 Hi-Tech Court
Eight Mile Plains QLD 4113
P: 07 3360 7933

www.ccfqld.com

TOWNSVILLE

Unit 13, 547 Woolcock Street
Mount Louisa QLD 4814
P: 07 4774 8014