LOOKING
THE OBVIOUS

LYNX CVE print and packaging is something new in design and print management.

More and more businesses of all sizes are discovering that large print companies cannot meet their needs for personalised, bespoke service.

Our aim is to provide end-to-end print management and design services tailored to our clients needs. Our seven decades of combined print experience, a truly bespoke, and client-focused ethic, we achieve just that.

We're proud to offer highly personalised design, and printing services, specialising in both lithographic and digital printing.

Our tailored management service focuses on meeting our client's unique business needs in agile, responsive and innovative ways.

To have real impact you need to look beyond the obvious, and that is never more important than in the design stage. A well thought out, highly personal design is the key to communicating your unique brand effectively and grabbing your customers' attention. We are passionate about providing innovative and highly effective design services that do just that.

DESIGN

No matter what the message you are committing to print, you need it to make an impact. Our in-house designers and print production experts will work closely with you to produce a truly engaging, powerful final product whether it is a brochure or poster, a company report or a mail shot. Every document is an opportunity to communicate your brand.

PRINT

LYNX CVE offers a range of highly responsive print management services that many huge print houses struggle to provide. We print a huge variety of different items, and already have relationships in place with a number of hand-picked suppliers. That means that our clients only have one point of contact for all of their needs. Simple and efficient.

At LYNX CVE, we believe that each client deserves a well-designed, well-printed and well-managed project, every time. We work closely with each client to better understand your situation, your business needs and the exact ways we can provide you with a highly personalised, bespoke and responsive service. We believe that communication is the key to offering this, and we want to offer the highest standards of client care in everything we do.

We have our production factory and purpose-built warehousing facility in Chalgrove Oxfordshire. With excellent motorway links to the M40 corridor and a modern, highly responsive on site warehousing facility, our response, turn-around and delivery times are second to none in the South.

Our integrated warehouse allows us to respond to changes and emergencies at any time of the day or night, seven days a week. We also have 24-hour online stock ordering, something few other companies can offer. The end result for you is less waste, better response time and more quality for less money.

As the United Kingdom is finding its footing in the 21st century, it is becoming clear that we will need to embrace sound, renewable environmental policies to prosper.

That is why we at LYNX CVE are proud to say that our staff have all been trained one to one with FSC® accredited auditors, allowing us to give expert guidance on recycled and FSC® materials, renewable vegetable inks and other ecologically friendly practices.

As part of our continuing mission to reduce our carbon footprint and those of our clients, we are committed to full compliance with our environmental management system. After all, it is our responsibility to make sure that whilst creating beautiful print, we're also caring for our beautiful planet.
