

Free, No-Obligation Services Offer Available TO CANADIAN BUSINESSES

COVID-19 Has Affected Us All. We Must Get Through This Together.

As we progress through this difficult time day by day, hour by hour, minute by minute, it can be hard to find the time to update your website and provide your customers with information regarding your business during the COVID-19 epidemic.

BreezeMaxWeb, a large Canadian digital marketing agency, wants to help Canadian SMBs cope with this Black Swan event and emerge on the other side.

Therefore, in keeping with our commitment to corporate social responsibility, we are offering a number of free, no-obligation COVID-19 relief service(s) to clients and non-clients across the country.

Please see the information below and the related attachments for details. If you can, please forward this information to a business owner or entrepreneur you feel could benefit from these services.

In these challenging times, businesses must ensure their web presence:

- Provides correct and timely information concerning their response to the current situation
- Is ready for possible revenue generation
- Guarantees that their brand is well represented

THE SERVICES LISTED BELOW ARE 100% FREE WITH NO COMMITMENT OR OBLIGATION!
