

Venue Hire at the Florence Nightingale Museum

Did you know you can hold your private party at the Florence Nightingale Museum? With our central London location on the banks of the river Thames, we are the ideal venue for hosting receptions or drinks parties. Your guests can learn more about Britain's greatest Victorian woman with a glass of chilled wine in their hand.

Hire fees

The museum can be hired for a two-hour event at a cost of £600 including VAT. Please let us know if you would like to arrange a longer booking at an extra charge.

Catering

Catering is supplied by Hospitality at St Thomas' Hospital who offer a number of different packages to help you select the perfect refreshments for your event. Minimum number of guests: 20 people.

To discuss your requirements and for more information please contact:
stephanie@florence-nightingale.co.uk

Package	Description	Catering cost per guest
Bronze Party Package	This package includes all you will need for an event, including a member of catering staff on duty, use of tables and linen. Refreshments are a glass of white wine per guest, nibbles and soft drinks.	£15 per guest
Silver Party Package	This package is for a special occasion. Guests are given a choice of Prosecco, beer or white wine or soft drinks. Four delicious cold canapés are served to each guest. Price includes a member of catering staff on duty, use of tables and linen.	£20 per guest
Gold Party Package	The Gold package is for those who want to really treat their guests to something special. Guests will be served champagne, white wine, beer or soft drinks. Eight delicious hot or cold canapés are served to each guest. Two member of catering staff will circulate with wine and canapés. Price includes use of tables and linen.	£25 per guest
Afternoon Tea Party Package	For the late afternoon party, the Tea Party package is a very English experience. Scones, tin cakes and delicate sandwiches are washed down with Florence Nightingale's favourite drink, piping hot tea. Price includes a member of catering staff on duty, use of tables and linen.	£18 per guest
Christmas Party Package	Experience a Victorian Christmas event at the Florence Nightingale Museum. Guests will be served cider cup made to a special 19 th century recipe and the traditional mince pie. White wine and soft drinks are also available. Price includes a member of catering staff on duty, use of tables and linen.	£20 per guest

