

Unlock your Manufacturing Potential with Autodesk

Event Agenda – 17th March 2020

TIME	CONTENT
09:00	Breakfast and Registration
09:30	Welcome and Introductions – Autodesk and Cadline Introducing the objectives of the day and the team that will help you get the best from your machinists and CNC investment.
09:45	How can Autodesk help you leverage Smart Manufacturing and Industry 4.0? – Steven Rosendale, Product Sales Specialist, Autodesk Understanding how you can move from Static to Dynamic Manufacturing Operations and Navigate the Industry 4.0 revolution.
10:15	Tour of the Autodesk Advanced Manufacturing Facility 1 hour tour of the Autodesk Advanced Manufacturing Facility to experience the latest additive and subtractive machining techniques, use of robotics and the real world application of Generative Design.
11:15	Coffee & Networking
11:30	Group Discovery Session – Your business opportunity and challenges – James Slater, Manufacturing Business Development Manager An interactive session that will help you identify business opportunities and challenges and share experiences with your peer group.
12:30	Lunch
13:00	How can Autodesk help you drive down cycle times, solve complex manufacturing challenges and improve product quality? – Chris Northall, Technical Sales Specialist Understand how Autodesk's CAM solution can practically help drive down cycle times and deliver benefits to your manufacturing process and production outputs.
13:20	Autodesk MAKE Portfolio – Case Study – Bright Engineering A detailed review of how Bright Engineering have benefited from Autodesk CAM technology and the positive effect it has had on their business.
13:40	FeatureCAM – Live technical product introduction – Paul Tolliday, Manufacturing Specialist, Cadline A live technical presentation to introduce Autodesk FeatureCAM and how this can significantly improve and automate your manufacturing process and production capabilities.
14:00	Data Management & Collaboration – Live technical presentation – Paul Tolliday, Manufacturing Specialist, Cadline An introduction to Autodesk Vault and how these tools can significantly improve the management of CAD and CAM data and its controlled release to manufacturing and production. Using Autodesk Fusion Team, understand how to share information with project stakeholders and collaborate with the shop floor, supply chain and customers in an easy to use web based environment.

14:30	Summary of the day A wrap up of the day and some practical next step recommendations to help you solve production issues in your own individual business.
14:45	Close