

Connect with Members

LinkedIn is a great way to grow your professional network. Once you've clicked on the member list, hover over the member and select the "Envelope" icon next to their name to send them a message.

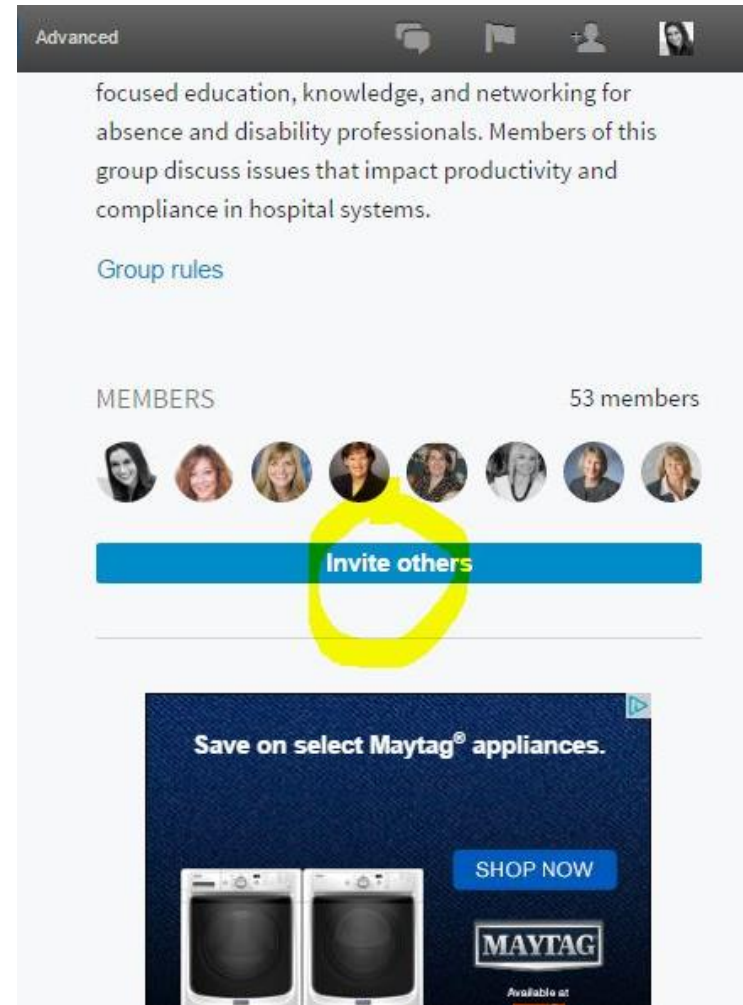

The screenshot shows the LinkedIn interface for the 'DMEC Hospital System Industry Group'. The group is unlisted and has 53 members. Below the group header is a 'MEMBERS LIST' section with tabs for 'Members', 'Pending', and 'Admins'. A search bar is present with the text 'Find a member...'. Three members are listed:

- Terri Rhodes, Chief Executive Officer at Disability Management Employer Coalition (DMEC). A yellow star highlights the message icon (envelope) next to her name.
- Jennifer Watkins, Marketing Professional.
- Tasha Patterson, Director, Marketing & Membership at Disability Management Employer Coalition (DMEC). Her role is also listed as 'OWNER'.

Invite Others to Join

Do you know other hospital system colleagues who would benefit from participating in the group? We encourage you to invite them to join through LinkedIn. From the right side of the screen, simply click "Invite others" to reach out to your colleagues through LinkedIn.

Start a Conversation

Within the DMEC Hospital System Industry Group page, post questions, comments, or information to the group. Your conversation can be up to 200 characters in length, including spaces.

A yellow circle highlights the 'Start a conversation with your group' button, which includes a profile picture of a woman and a text input field labeled 'Enter a conversation title...'. Below this, there are tabs for 'Conversations' and 'Jobs', and a list of group members, including Teresa Deaza, Manager, Leave Services at BayCare Health System, with a '2w' timestamp.

Notification Settings

Make sure you receive notifications when group members start a conversation, or reply to a question. From the main LinkedIn homepage, select Settings & Privacy under the “Me” icon. You can change your email settings from this screen under the Communications tab. Scroll down to groups, and make sure all the tabs are “On” for the DMEC Hospital System Industry Group under the “All group email settings” page.
