Temporary protection against a gloss finished skirting board or door frame

Walther Strong Clean Room Construction Tape is uniquely designed to meet the needs of professional contractors. Its specialist adhesive will remove clean and is protected by a UV barrier so it can be left in direct sunlight without marking the surface.

Walther Strong Clean Room Construction Tape is designed for critical environment construction and support applications. It can also be used for floor marking, colour coding and delicate sealing to protect important surfaces. It has a very high tack and good cohesive strength, leaves no residue and is resistant to acids and other chemicals.

Tip: Our Clean Room Construction Tape is ROHS certified and meets COSH regulations. The tape is manufactured with an embossed pattern which has the benefit of NO marks being left by this technologically advanced product.
