W-PHS Announces 2019 Officers

The Williamson-Pultneyville Historical Society (W-PHS) announces 2019 officers which include President Nanette Peters Hance, who most recently completed a two-year term as Vice-President, Cheryl Kline as Vice President, Deb Parts as Treasurer, out-going President Jackie Walker serves as Recording Secretary, Linda Perkins, Corresponding Secretary and Ex-Officio Trustee, Perry Howland as Williamson Town Historian.

The officers, along with Standing Committee Chairs comprise the Board of Trustees which guide the collaborative efforts of the society that support its mission to nurture and share the history of the township of Williamson through preserving and protecting select historic structures and landmarks, objects and written materials that reflect the unique heritage of this community.

With a focus on education and outreach, W-PHS strives to strengthen ties within the community and encourages others to join in continuing efforts to preserve and protect the historical assets of the greater community, which includes the Town of Williamson and the hamlets of East Williamson and Pultneyville. It works diligently to both gather and disseminate information.

W-PHS was founded in 1964 and is a 501c3 chartered by the New York State Board of Regents. It is an all volunteer organization and relies on memberships and contributions as financial resources which support its work to further the society's mission, as well as to maintain and make improvements to the properties in its care that include the W-PHS home located at 4130 Mill Street which houses exhibits and its Archives Collection, Gates Hall which is the second oldest little theatre in the United States in continuous operation and Centennial Park which is the public square directly across from Gates Hall on Lake Road.
