Day 5

Lissadell House and Gardens

The famous childhood home of Constance (Gore-Booth) Markievicz, one of the leaders of the 1916 Rising, first woman elected to Dail Eireann and the House of Commons.

WB Yeats, Poet (Nobel Prize in Literature) was friendly with the Gore-Booth sisters and stayed in Lassadell during 1892-93. He immortalised both the sisters and the house in his poetry. In 'In Memory of Eva Gore-Booth and Con Markievicz' Yeats describes

'The light of evening, Lissadell,
Great windows open to the south,
Two girls in silk kimonos, both
Beautiful, one a gazelle'

Travel to the Grave of WB Yeats at Drumcliffe Church.

Yeats while he died in France, he chose this peaceful churchyard as his final resting place, with its stunning location at the foot of Benbulbin Mountain. The epitaph he wrote for himself is engraved on this tomb - 'Under Ben Bulbin'
