Detail is everything

As a family-owned business, we treat our customers with the same care and attention we would expect ourselves.

That extends from taking the time to fully fit outfits, to ensuring we offer the latest style options in a wide choice of sizes and fittings. Our staff are trained to give etiquette advice if required and to look at individual solutions, because each occasion is a unique experience.

Our philosophy, 'we don't just provide suits; we build outfits for the most important days of people's lives', drives us to deliver a service that ensures our customers look great for every special occasion.

Understanding the importance of your big day

Whether you wish to buy, hire, or select from our Made to Measure service, our team of specialists will offer a range of options to ensure you look and feel good for your special day, or evening. We provide suits for every occasion, from dinner dances and prom nights, to weddings and black or white tie events. We also offer Highland wear for Burns Night and Hogmanay, top hat and tailcoat for Ascot and lounge suits for every other eventuality.

The outfits we stock are well-considered, and the choice of accessories available ensure we do our best to cater for the colour themes and looks our customers have in mind. As we stock our own range of garments for hire, we can provide a full fitting service, so everyone can see how they will look ahead of the special occasion. This also enables us to ensure our customers achieve a superb fit, regardless of whether a customer is buying, hiring, or being measured for one of our Made to Measure suits.

Individuality matters

We believe in considering every detail of your individual outfit, to ensure the overall look is perfect. Our range of suits is varied and the accessories we offer give a broad range of colours and designs that work individually, or can be coordinated to complement a bride, or other partner's outfit.

We can also use a customer's own fabric to create the perfect match.

SLIMMER FITTING SUITS

Our collection combines modern styling and comfort to ensure a stylish silhouette. Wedding parties not only look great, but everyone can wear the contemporary, slimmer fit.

NECKWEAR

Our extensive range of neckwear covers a wide choice of colours and includes ties, cravats and bow ties. We also have matching tie and waistcoat options. If required, we will also work with a customer's own fabric.

WAISTCOATS

We offer matching fabric waistcoat options on many of our suits and have brocade and patterned waistcoats. If your preference is for vintage, there are tweeds to choose from, and for something totally different we offer smart checks.

THE GROOM

Whilst every groom wants to complement the bridal party, he should also shine in his own right. Our range of groom outfits will achieve both aspirations without compromise.

Pageboy outfits

We have an extensive collection for the smaller members of the wedding party. We cater for a wide range of sizes and shapes and can match pageboy outfits to the groom and groomsmen. Should this not be possible, we have a host of ideas and solutions to ensure the boys' outfits complement the adult suits. Our collection includes everything from children's tail and wedding suits to Highland Wear and accompanying waistcoats.

Highland Wear

Distinctive and smart Highland Wear offers an alternative to other forms of wedding attire, as well as being popular for more traditional Scottish occasions such as Hogmanay and Burns

Night. We stock Prince Charlie outfits at some of our stores, along with Scotland's National Tartan kilts.

We can also obtain a further fifteen tartan variations on request, in both adult and child sizes. Please ask us for further details.

Fit for everyone

Whether a customer is hiring, buying, or ordering one of our Made to Measure suits, we always aim to achieve the best possible fit. Whilst our Made to Measure service offers the ultimate experience when it comes to fit and individuality, we acknowledge that this is not an option for everyone. Our ready-to-wear suits and hirewear ranges offer an excellent choice of designs and fittings, and our fully trained staff ensure all our suits fit as perfectly as possible. Each of our shops offer an adjustment service for fine-tuning, and if a more elaborate alteration is required, we have several tailors available within our group. Our aim is for you to achieve a great look that is both stylish and comfortable to wear for that special occasion.

Evening attire

From slim fit DJs and smart black shoes, to brightly coloured bow ties and wing collared dress shirts, we have a dress outfit for every formal occasion. Our range of evening attire includes evening tail suits for white tie functions, white tuxedos for cruises and a range of black dinner suits in a variety of styles. Whilst we cater mainly for adults, dinner suits are also available for children.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS

Our formalwear departments offer suits for a wide range of occasions and the man who is looking for something more unusual. The white tuxedo is not only perfect for a Caribbean cruise, but can also cut a dash of style at a summer ball, whilst for white tie events, only evening tails will do. Stylish accessories are also available to add further elegance or individuality to your outfit.

CLASSIC STYLE

Whether you have been invited to a dinner dance, or another black tie occasion such as a boxing event, the black dinner suit reigns supreme in the gentlemen's formal attire wardrobe. The single-breasted step collar style suit is the most popular, but a shawl collar and double-breasted suit could also be considered. A bow tie, pocket handkerchief, crisp dress shirt and satin cummerbund create that timeless look.

SLIM FIT SUITS & ACCESSORIES

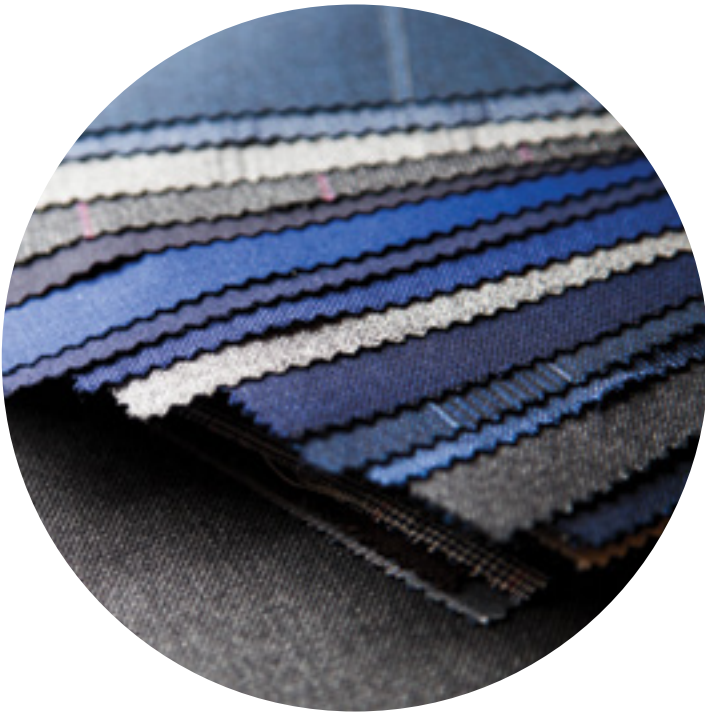

Slim fit dress suits have gained popularity in recent years and are ideal for many occasions, such as formal dinners or prom nights. We also sell a wide range of slim fit shirts to coordinate with any outfit.

Slim fit

Our slim fit suit ranges embrace an extremely popular contemporary style and vary from slimmer looking to skinny fit. Within our stores, there are many fitted suits to select from, and for the gentleman who wishes to hire, we stock styles that are slimmer fitting, but a bit more forgiving than skinny fit. This is important when hiring, as when fitting several men in a wedding party, it can be a challenge to get everyone into the slimmest silhouettes. By offering a variety of slimmer styles we can achieve a look for everyone to feel comfortable in.

MIMM

Individual tailoring for your special occasion

Creating a suit to your exact requirements is an immensely personalised experience. Our Made to Measure service combines an elevated level of customer care and an attention to detail to create a uniquely tailored garment, crafted exclusively for you. Our team is equipped with expert knowledge and a wealth of experience to guide you through the tailoring process at a convenient place and time. Your suit will be meticulously crafted by skilled tailors, creating a suit to your personal specification. This tailoring stage is completed within six to eight weeks.

Making plans

We recognise that your special occasion is more than just one day, so our commitment is not short-term.

We invest in good quality suits and accessories that look superb and reflect modern trends.

Preparing for your wedding day is fun, but there is also a lot to consider. For our part we hope we can assist the groom, groomsmen and pageboys to achieve a great look, with the minimum amount of effort on their part. Our team of trained staff are on hand to advise with anything from etiquette and fit, to giving guidance, if required, on latest trends.

We appreciate budgets and tastes vary and with that in mind we are happy to explore all options within our Made to Measure, ready-to-wear and hirewear ranges.

Our overall aim is always to ensure our customers are happy, comfortable and look the way they want to.

To help you with your plans, we suggest the following timetable (mainly for hiring):

- It is never too early to come and visit us to discuss your plans and browse our collections. There is no substitute for visiting us in-store; clothing is a tactile experience and the groom may want to try on outfits.
- If you decide on our Made to Measure service or to hire from us, we recommend the men in the party book to be measured three to four months ahead of the wedding. For hiring this can be less, as we hold our own stock, but it is better to be prepared.
- Children's hirewear is fitted closer to the date of the wedding because some children change size quite quickly. Once we are aware of any younger members of the wedding party, we can advise on suitable dates.
- Collection of hirewear outfits is usually the day before the wedding. Our formal hirewear service includes full fittings at the time of booking, but we also recommend refitting outfits at home the day before, just in case.
- Return of outfits is usually the first day we are open after the wedding.

Why choose us for your memorable occasion?

You require the highest standards for your special event, and as an independent retailer we are dedicated to high levels of customer care and service.

We hope you will enable us to be part of your plans and look forward to discussing them with you, at your convenience.

As well as working to make your day perfect, we hope to be of service to your friends and other family members in the future, and we know that only happens if we take the time to listen and do our very best to create the outfits and looks that you have in mind.
