MINDFUL DINING TREND

There are a wide range of trends – sustainability, reducing food waste, and humane treatment of animals, among them – that all can be summed up by a macro trend sweeping through the QSR sector: mindful dining. Taste and price, along with quality, are still the most important matters when consumers dine out, but thereafter comes mindful dining that allow consumers to feel good about themselves while eating out.

NOW WITH COMPARTMENTS

BE PULP CONTAINERS

Sabert BePulp containers reflect the image of QSR. Prepared foods have a more local, artisanal, seasonal and ultra fresh look in our natural coloured packaging. The 2 new solutions with compartments extend our range of containers, and more importantly they allow menus and ingredients to be displayed as if prepared by a chef.
