

About Layer Marney Tower

Built during the Reign of Henry VII, Layer Marney Tower is England's tallest Tudor Gatehouse. Standing in the Essex countryside, it commands views to the River Blackwater and beyond.

About Essex Boys and Girls Clubs

Our Aim

To further the development and education of young people and to help them to achieve their physical, mental and spiritual potential.

We Deliver

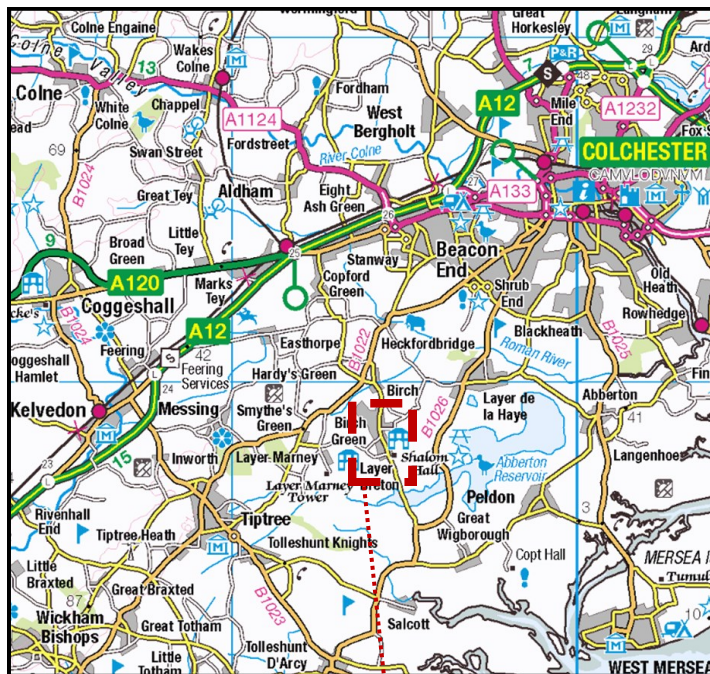

We are a provider of challenging activities, events and targeted youth projects, with a team of experienced youth workers, outdoor instructors and sports coaches.

Our History

Essex Boys and Girls Clubs was established in 1939 as the Essex Association of Boys Clubs. We were formed to provide young boys with opportunities to improve their chances in life and have done this successfully ever since. In 1996 EBGC obtained the lease for Stubbers Adventure Centre. In 2004 EBGC obtained a ten year lease to High Row, a bunk house in the Lake District (Since purchased in 2015) and in 2014 EBGC purchased Meas Y Lade, a residential Outdoor activity Centre in the Brecon Beacons - Wales.
