10 Fundraising Ideas FOR GETTING TO THE BROADWAY COLLECTIVE

Give a Benefit Concert

One way to show your friends, family, and community how much this dream means to you is by sharing your gift. Reach out to your local dance studio or church and ask to give a benefit concert with your friends on your program as well. One student last year raised her entire Gathered tuition by doing one benefit concert at her studio!

—— 3——— Crowd Fundraising

Websites such as Kickstarter give people the opportunity to donate. Create an exciting narrative that will tell your friends and family how important this experience is, encouraging them to donate to help you make it possible!

Babysitting Services

Talk to your neighbors with young children about babysitting! This is an easy way to make some good money!

Teach a Group Fitness Class

Many people are looking for new ways to get in shape. Use your dance and coaching skills to lead a group fitness class! You can start with your neighbors. Dance party anyone?

— 9 — Car Wash

Washing cars is an easy way to fundraise for this special experience! Plan to wash cars on a warm, sunny day at a location with many cars driving by!

Sell Old Clothing

Old clothing can easily be sold using new apps such as Offer-Up. There are also stores that will buy old clothing for cash!

Family Ask Letters

Write handwritten letters to your family members and community arts leaders! Explain the amazing opportunities that The Broadway Collective can provide and ask them to help!

— 6 — Pet Services

Pets need services too! Offer to walk pets or watch pets when your neighbors are leaving town for vacation! Every penny adds up!

Hold a Yard Sale

Find all of those old items that are taking up space in your closet. A yard sale is an excellent way to get rid of old stuff and make some money!

– 10 – Bake Sale

Everyone loves sweets! Bake some nice treats and sell them to raise funds! You can do this in your neighborhood or you can work with a local organization to see if they will let you sell baked goods at one of their events!
