COLOMBO INTERNATIONAL LOGISTICS CONFERENCE 2019

FIRST EVER LOGISTICS CONFERENCE, 1ST & 2ND
AUGUST 2019

We are pleased to inform that the first ever “Colombo International Logistics Conference” will take place at Hotel Galadari, Colombo from 1 – 2 August 2019 with the aim of showcasing Sri Lanka’s potential in catering to the needs of the maritime logistics industry. The logistic conference will be combined with port visits, free zone visits and optional tours for the participants.

The Port of Colombo, the fastest growing among the major international ports and the 11th best connected port in the World, is a well – known mega trans-shipment location in South Asia. Situated in the middle of the Indian Ocean and connecting multiple continents with billions of people, it is one of the best locations in the world for distribution and storage of both bulk and containerized cargo.

The forthcoming Conference will be an excellent opportunity for the international maritime community to explore lucrative business opportunities Sri Lanka offers to the World. Please visit www.cimc.lk for further details.

The event organizers wish to invite the interested Australian companies, Trade and Business Associations/Chambers/Business Councils to participate at the above important event.

For further information, please contact Mr. Dharmapala Weerakkody , Minister of the Sri Lanka High Commission in Canberra (Tel: 02 61983756, Mobile 0427114444, E-mail: admin@slhcaust.org).
