Hard Work Sows Success

Reece Wilson, 23 from Burnley, won the Burnley College award for Supported Student Internship of the Year, at a ceremony on the 13th of June. Reece has been on a year long internship at Pennine Lancashire Community Farm, where he has now just begun a two year Apprenticeship. “I was really excited to receive it” said Reece, “It made me feel really proud of myself”.

James Horsford, Manager of Pennine Lancashire Community Farm “It has been a pleasure to support and enable Reece’s growth and development over the last twelve months resulting in all his hard work earning him an apprenticeship role”.

When asked about his apprenticeship Reece said, “I’ve achieved something, I’ve done a lot more than anything else so far in my life”.
