

Discretionary Managed High Income Portfolio

01 May 2019

The High Income Portfolio is best described as a managed fund which is designed to place greater emphasis upon the provision of income by way of dividends and interest. However, for those investors that do not require income, this may be reinvested to allow new holdings to be acquired. There will be a bias towards developed and liquid capital markets.

Risk Warning

Past performance is not a guide to the future. The capital value of units and the income from them may fall as well as rise. Yield figures may vary and are not guaranteed. Where a fund holds investments in another currency there may be additional risks due to exchange rate fluctuations. Specific clarification, individual advice and consideration of full terms and conditions is necessary if action is being considered. An investor may not get back the amount invested.
