Keir Surgical becomes exclusive distributor for Innovia Medical's MINNE TIES® Agile MMF

November 2017 – Vancouver, Canada – Keir Surgical Ltd., a Canadian surgical instruments company, is pleased to announce becoming the exclusive distributor for Innovia Medical's Minne Ties® Agile MMF (maxilla-mandibular fixation).

Patrick Haney, President of Keir Surgical states "Minne Ties® is a brilliant but simple product that totally disrupts the current methods for MMF. Keir Surgical is excited to work with our partners at Innovia Medical to launch this innovative product in Canada." Minne Ties® is a safe and efficient alternative to existing wire or hybrid devices for achieving maxilla-mandibular fixation with a steady force and secure bite.
