Booking Conditions

1. Check in time is between 14:00 & 16:00. Please contact us if it will be after 16:00hrs. With a departure time of 10.30hrs. Please return the key to reception at the end of your holiday.
2. No more than the maximum sleeping capacity of the caravan is allowed at any time. This is to comply with fire and safety regulations. Any infringement of this rule will result in the immediate loss of your holiday with no monies refunded.
3. We understand that accidents do occur and we try and cover as much as possible. If any of your party does have an accident please could you replace the item if it's something small? If it's a large item and this is not possible, please inform reception before the end of your stay and they will arrange replacement and send you the bill.
4. Our aim is to hire caravans of a high standard that are cleaned to a very high standard; we believe that all guests have the right to such service. To help us achieve such a high standard, all our guests agree to take care of the caravan, which they are renting, and will leave the caravan in a clean and tidy condition at the end of their holiday.
5. There is a surcharge of £40 for any damages, lost keys or breakages; this will be returned once the Caravan has been inspected. If the caravan is left in an untidy and dirty condition and the end of your stay you will lose your surcharge to cover the addition administration and cleaning cost.
6. Bedding is provided, please bring your own towels.

Thank you for your booking with Cambria Caravan Park, we hope you enjoy your stay
