

Consent Policy

This policy defines why and how Ranger4 will request consent from individuals to store and process personally identifiable information.

Reasons for requesting consent

Ranger4 will request consent for the following purposes:

- to contact you once you have submitted a form on our website.
- to comply with regulations.
- from time to time to send you information that we think might be of interest to you and marketing communications
- to notify you of new posts if you chose to subscribe to our blog via email.

How we will request consent

Ranger 4 will follow the General Data Protection Regulation, REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 when requesting consent and the following will apply to all means by which consent is obtained. Ranger4 will:

- require a positive opt-in and will not use pre-ticked boxes or any other method of default consent.
- present a very clear specific statement of consent to the data subject.
- keep consent requests separate from other terms and conditions.
- be specific and granular in all statements of consent.
- be clear and concise in all statements of consent.
- name any third party who will rely on the consent.
- not make consent a precondition of service.

In addition Ranger4 will keep evidence of the lawful basis for consent, including how and when this consent was granted.

Your right to withdraw consent

You have the right to withdraw consent for Ranger4 to store and process your personal information at any time, To do so, please contact us by email at hello@ranger4.com.

You have the right to lodge a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office if you believe your information is not being processed in accordance with the GDPR. Further details on your rights under the GDPR can be accessed here: www.eugdpr.org
