

Newsletter - August 2016

Global H2O was back in Uganda in April 2016, visiting villages who benefited from previous projects and monitoring the wells. The visit was lead by our Germany Country Director, David Humphrey, who will be releasing an exciting documentary showcasing the impact of clean water in Ugandan communities. Stay tuned!

Help us drill the next well

What's happening in your community

Walkathon for Water

An amazing initiative from a group of students from Broughton High school in Raleigh, North Carolina, raised enough money to fully fund one well. Several groups of students participated in a Walk for Water and raised awareness about the lack of clean water in the world. The walk represented the average 3.7 miles that women have to walk to provide water to their families.

Thank you, Broughton High School and Daniels Middle School for your contribution!

Travelling with a purpose: 11 days in Uganda with Lekker Adventures

Global H2O is excited to announce a partnership with Lekker Adventures! Lekker Adventures is offering an 11 day tour of Uganda, including the best that this beautiful country has to offer. This trip includes an exclusive tour of the Ugandan National Parks, safaris, a boat trip on the Nile, and the rare opportunity to see the

If you or someone you know is interested in leading a similar project, please email us.

Wine into Water Wine Tasting

In the UK, Global H2O held its second 'wine into water wine tasting', raising over £800 for clean water projects. It was a hugely successful evening with a range of prizes available for auction, including a bottle of whiskey signed by none other than the UK Prime Minister David Cameron!

Later in the year (October/November) we will be holding a gala dinner for the very first time. Watch this space!

We are also proud to announce our corporate partnership with Lekker Adventures.

Lekker Adventures will help us raise money through tours booked by their clients. Julia, Lekker Adventures MD, is pictured below with our trustees, Scott Lucas, Doug Rowe and Rob Shaw.

Beer for Water Fundraiser

On March 22nd, Global H2O USA celebrated World Water Day with a Beer for Water Fundraiser in Raleigh, N.C. The event, held at the North Carolina Museum of History in Raleigh, endangered mountain gorilla in its natural habitat. The group will also contribute to the drilling of a well and visit a village who benefited from a Global H2O project.

11 day tour of Uganda
February 2017
Only 16 spots available!

For additional information, please send a message to info@lekkeradventures.com or visit www.lekkeradventures.com

Kudos to Jett's Jewels

Meet Jett, a 14 year old from North Carolina, with an entrepreneurial spirit and a desire to make a difference in the world.

Jett supports Global H2O on an on-going basis by selling hand-crafted jewelry and donating 50% of her proceeds to fund clean water projects in the world. Thank you from everyone at Global H2O!

gathered local breweries and was a great success, raising $2,000 in just one night! We plan on organizing another Beer for Water event next year on World Water Day and making this an annual celebration.

This message was sent to email@example.com from cleanwater@globalh2o.org

www.globalh2o.org
Global H2O
2117 Cowper Drive
Raleigh, NC 27608

Unsubscribe