

The new edition of St Peter & St James Hospice magazine 'Caring' is out now

St Peter & St James Hospice has a free magazine called 'Caring' which is produced three times a year. As well as being sent to supporters in the community, copies of 'Caring' can also be picked up at any of our charity shops, the Reception at the Hospice, Sainsbury's (Haywards Heath) or downloaded from the website.

St Peter & St James is encouraging its community to learn more about the vital care it gives to patients by more people reading the magazine. This new edition features:

- Dame Vera Lynn
- Kim and Andy Murray's Pay For A Day
- A chance to meet some of our expert clinical team
- Summer events
- Sign up to Star Walk

...and lots more about what has taken place over the winter/spring and what is planned for the summer. You can read it at <http://www.stpeter-stjames.org.uk/about/media-centre/caring-magazine>

Giles Witcomb, Head of Fundraising at St

Peter & St James Hospice, said, "We have wonderful support from our local community and reading 'Caring' is one of the ways in which people can keep up to date on what's happening at the hospice and what we have planned. We'd like to increase the number of people who receive the magazine, so I'd like to encourage more people to get in touch if they would like to be sent a copy and wish to support us further."

If you would like to be sent a copy of 'Caring' and added to the list to receive future editions, please email fundraising@stpeter-stjames.org.uk or call 01444 470722.
