

COSTING GUIDE

RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY PURCHASE

We have prepared this information sheet to provide our prospective client with information in relation to the costs that may be charged on a residential property purchase transaction. Every property is different and until we have all the details relating to your particular transaction we are not able to give you an exact estimate of costs.

Our fees cover the work required to complete the purchase of your property, including dealing with the registration of any proposed mortgage(s), reviewing all documentation received from the Seller's solicitors and raising necessary enquiries, dealing with registration of the transaction at the Land Registry and submitting a land transaction return to HMRC in respect of any Stamp Duty Payable.

Legal Fees

Value of Property	Legal Fee* (freehold property)	Legal Fee* (leasehold property)

All fees referred to above are subject to VAT

Disbursements

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as Land Registry fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

- Search Fees £200 - £400
- HM Land Registry Search fees from £3.00;
- HM Land Registry Registration Fee - dependant on the value of the Property

- Electronic money transfer – admin fee £30 (plus VAT) per transaction;
- Mortgage work fee £75.00 (plus VAT) per charge.

Other leasehold disbursements

The following additional disbursements are usually payed to the relevant landlord/managing agent/management company. The fees will be confirmed upon receipt of the lease and the leasehold sale pack from the management agents acting for the landlord and / or the management company.

- Notice of Transfer fee;
- Notice of Charge fee (if the property is to be mortgaged);
- Deed of Covenant fee;
- Certificate of Compliance fee

The fees estimated within this information sheet assumes that:

- This is a standard transaction and that no unforeseen matters arise including, for example (but not limited to) a defect in title which requires remedying prior to completion or the preparation of additional documents ancillary to the main transaction;
- The transaction is concluded in a timely manner and no unforeseen complications arise;
- No indemnity policies are required. Additional disbursements may apply if indemnity policies are required.

Below is a list of things that may increase the estimated cost and the length of time taken to complete your transaction:

- Foreign AML Checks;
- First registration of title;
- Whether there is more than one mortgage to obtain (Help to Buy Loan);

- First Time Buyer ISA;
- Shared ownership scheme;
- A new build property;
- Purchase at auction.

This is not an exhaustive list.

We are a Conveyancing Quality Scheme Accredited Firm and are registered panel members for many Mortgage Lenders. However, in the event that we are not on your Mortgage Lender's Panel of approved solicitors, we reserve the right to increase our legal fees.

We would advise you to contact us directly to discuss your matter so that we can give you more accurate information in relation to the costs that will be associated with your property sale.
