

Susan Liautaud

Member of CARE International Supervisory Board

Susan Liautaud is the founder of Imaginer Consulting Limited, a consultancy offering pro bono services to non-profit organisations ranging from start-ups to Nobel Prize winners. She offers particular expertise in governance, accountability, strategic planning, board management, and a variety of operational matters. Earlier professional experience includes international corporate and financial law at Sullivan & Cromwell in Paris and New York, and subsequently serving as Associate Dean for International and Graduate Programs and Lecturer in Law at Stanford University Law School, where she developed the first course in international NGOs. Susan serves on a number of non-profit boards and advisory boards, most recently including the American Hospital of Paris Board of Governors, the Comité de la Charte Board of Directors, co-Chair of the Doctors Without Borders/Médecins Sans Frontières U.S. Advisory Board, and the Columbia Law School International Advisory Board. Susan holds a PhD in Social Policy from the London School of Economics and Political Science; a Juris Doctor from Columbia University Law School with honours; an M.A. in Chinese Studies with distinction from University of London School of Oriental and African Studies; and two BAs with honours and an M.A. from Stanford University.