

Towards Climate Justice

Exploring Community Work and Human Rights Approaches to Climate Action

Ireland has declared a climate and biodiversity emergency.

Sustainable, Inclusive and Empowered Communities, the new strategy to support the community and voluntary sectors in Ireland, includes an objective to support community development and local development to engage with Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation Strategies.

There is an increasing awareness of the importance of knowledge and action at community level. Join us to explore community work and human rights approaches to Climate Action.

This event is primarily aimed at community work organisations, community workers and others interested in working with communities on issues of climate change and climate justice.

February 20th - 11am-4pm (registration from 10.30am) in the Shearwater Hotel, Ballinasloe

Speakers

- Professor John Sweeney, International Expert on Climate Change;
- Anastasia Crickley, International Expert on Community Work & Human Rights;
- Iva Pocock, ECOLISE
- Deirdre Kelly, Dept of Rural and Community Development
- Joe Gallagher, Dept of Communications, Climate Action & Environment
- Ann Irwin, Community Work Ireland
- Chairperson - Niall Ó Brolcháin, Galway Environmental Network.

Register Here - <https://climatejustice2.eventbrite.ie>

Comhairle Chontae na Gaillimhe
Galway County Council

Social Inclusion &
Community Activation
Programme

CWI work is supported by the Scheme to Support National Organisations, funded by the Government of Ireland through the Department of Rural and Community Development. This seminar is supported by Galway County Council and Galway Rural Development

Rialtas na hÉireann
Government of Ireland