Press release:

September 15th, 2014

RAVAGO CHEMICALS is pleased to announce that it has signed an agreement to acquire INNOVIA SOLUTIONS Ltd a specialty chemicals distribution company supplying high performance raw materials to the coating, construction and allied industries in the UK and Ireland. The management team of INNOVIA SOLUTIONS will continue to run the business as part of the RAVAGO CHEMICALS group of companies.

Innovia Solutions was founded in 2003 and has successfully developed the business to become a highly regarded distributor in the coating and construction markets for the UK and Ireland. The current management team is committed to continue the business development under the new ownership.

RAVAGO CHEMICALS is dedicated to the distribution of chemical raw materials and specialty additives for various application industries with a leading position throughout the EMEA region.

With the acquisition of INNOVIA SOLUTIONS, RAVAGO CHEMICALS is strengthening its footprint in the UK and Irish market and has a solid base to further expand the operations.
