LECTURE ON THE HISTORY OF OUR CHURCH – FRIDAY 17TH MAY. 7.00PM FOR A 7.30PM START.

Due to popular demand, the Heritage Committee have arranged for Dr Roger Gibson, one of our parishioners, to deliver a second one-hour lecture on the history and building of our church, St Peter the Apostle. It is planned to hold this lecture on Friday 17 May in St Peters Church at 7.00pm arrival with light refreshments for a 7.30pm start.

Roger will provide us with an insight into how the conflation of social, political, artistic and spiritual forces set a context in which the Catholic Church reinstated an architectural influence and historic age that set itself against the prevailing social vagaries of the industrial revolution. Augustus Pugin the architect of St Peters, for a short glorious period was at the head of this movement and we are still the beneficiary of his talent and influence.

You will need to book your place.
