

Who may need the services of Aging Wisely?

- A crisis has occurred, typically health related, no one knows what to do, uncertain whom to contact, and unsure what services are available.

- Medicare and Medicaid, insurance issues have everyone confused, and there are concerns that the proper coverage is not being provided.

- A loved one needs help and the primary support person lives too far away to provide assistance, or is struggling to balance many roles.

- It is difficult to reach the physician and other professionals involved and you want to know what is happening.

- You are planning for a loved one with special needs and want to ensure continued quality of life.

- You are concerned that you or a loved one is unable to continue to live independently and would like to investigate available options.

- Out of town relatives receive frequent pleas for help from their loved ones and don't know where to turn.

- Your loved one is diagnosed with dementia or other progressive disease.

- There is a disagreement over the type of assistance needed or how to provide care for your family member.

- You are planning your retirement and need to understand the choices you have regarding Medicare and insurance coverages.

- As the attorney, durable power of attorney, guardian, financial advisor or trust officer you are uncertain what is best for your client's situation and you need a professional assessment, care plan and recommendations.

How does Aging Wisely help you?

NEEDS ASSESSMENT

We provide an objective, professional assessment, helping you to prioritize needs and make decisions.

PERSONALIZED CARE PLAN

We make recommendations and put together a plan based on your needs and desires. You choose from our comprehensive array of services and we help in the way that is appropriate and desired by you.

NETWORK OF PROFESSIONALS

We can link you with the best professionals in the community to meet your needs, including legal, financial, medical, and a variety of community services.

SCREENING AND ARRANGING SERVICES

We provide peace of mind by recommending the appropriate providers and advocating for you so that you receive cost effective, high quality service.

EXPERT CONSULTATION & PROFESSIONAL GUIDANCE

You benefit from our professional expertise & experience. Aging Wisely provides objective and professional guidance that helps you deal with long-term care issues in a knowledgeable manner, helping to anticipate what is going to be needed and providing alternatives and options.

COORDINATION OF SERVICES

Aging Wisely can provide ongoing monitoring of services and provide a status report to loved ones that are unable to be with you. This ongoing contact provides security for you and your loved one, and provides a supportive relationship. Most importantly, we work to ensure that solutions are successful where others may have failed in the past.

ADVOCACY

Having an advocate who knows the system ensures you get the best outcomes possible.

CONTINUITY OF CARE

We use a secure online medical and personal records system to ensure continuity between providers. Our clients benefit from top quality care and improved outcomes.
