

Little Legacy Performance May 30th, 2020 “Final Bow”

Location: Madison Center for the Arts, May 30th 10:30am-11:30am

Dress Rehearsals: During regular class time Saturday, May 16th- Thursday, May 21st.

What is it? This is our main stage performance! The opportunity for our young ones to shine on stage and experience the lights, curtains and backstage moments. All our teacher assistants and student helpers participate to make this magical for the little dancers so they know what to aspire to.

Participation Fee per child

$20 Participation fee covers recital shirt and theater time. Billed on March 24th. This performance is not professionally recorded. You are welcome to video your child.

Tickets

Tickets are $19 *with all theater box office fees included. It is a Madison Center for the Arts requirement that you purchase tickets directly through their online box office only. If attending two shows (Little Legacy and Legacy Unplugged), $10 discounted tickets will apply at time of purchase.

Costume

If you still need to purchase the Little Legacy costume, please visit the front desk to try on a sample size and place your order as soon as possible. We are getting close to costume company deadlines so your immediate order is best!

How to participate?

If you want to participate in Little Legacy May 2020 Concert “Final Bow”, you have NOTHING to do! You are already enrolled as a member of our program. Costumes and participation will be billed on the above dates.
