Infrastructure

The scale of investment currently being delivered in Nottingham sees one of the biggest improvement programmes in the country, with £3.5 billion being invested via a combination of public and private sector funds covering transport, infrastructure and the built environment. This includes a broad range of initiatives covering an £800m Road Network Investment - currently being invested in upgrading road networks and creating an integrated transport hub, which comprises a number of projects including:

- A453 widening which is nearing completion a scheme to widen a seven mile stretch of the A453 between M1 Junction 24 and the A52 Nottingham Ring Road.
- Ring Road improvements £16 million improvement works along the Ring Road (A6514) to reduce congestion and increase capacity by spring 2016.
- Recently completed £155M renovation to Nottingham Station creating a new transport hub for the East Midlands.
- HS2 East Midlands Hub delivered by 2023 the eastern leg would serve stations in the East Midlands, South Yorkshire and Leeds with the East Midlands Station to be located in Toton which is to the south west of Easter Park.
- NET Tram Expansion 2013 2015: A multi-million pound project to extend Nottingham's tram service to the south and south west of the city with an additional 17.5 km track delivering a network directly linking with train and local bus services. This new tramline runs along Lenton Lane.

OCCUPIERS

Easter Park

Nottingham is the Economic Capital of the East Midlands boasting a £12.1 billion economy that is recognised within business and government policy as a critical economy for the UK.

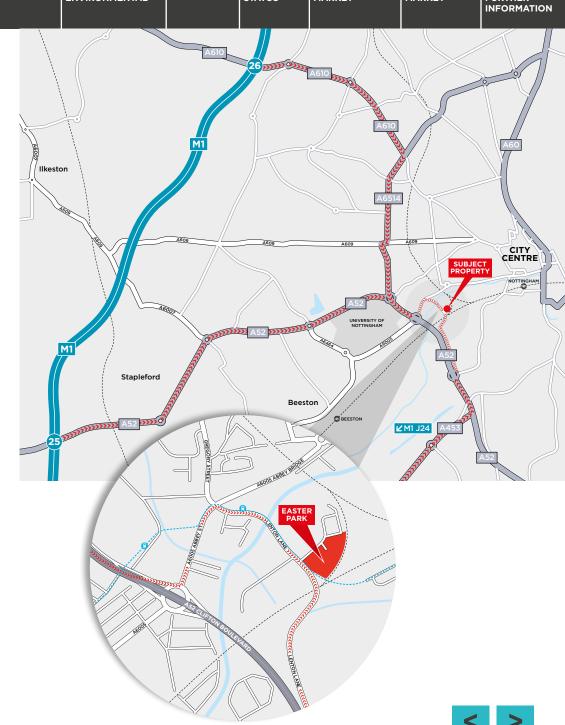

Nottingham's strategic UK location has attracted major retailers and third party logistics companies such as M&S, Co-operative, ASDA and UDG. The aggregation of warehouses and manufacturing businesses has driven the supply of skilled workers including pickers, packers, warehouse operatives and administrative staff.

The Alliance Boots site is home to several thousand people engaged in manufacturing branded health & beauty goods. Another major corporation, GSK are re-investing into Nottingham with a £12M laboratory due to complete in 2016. Nottingham is also home to aerospace and car manufacturing companies including Rolls Royce, Toyota, Bombardier, ZF, Avingtrans and Bulwell Precision Engineers and as well as specialist engineering companies including Greene Tweed, Romax Technologies and Changan Automotive.

SITUATION

Easter Park is located on the west side of Nottingham which affords easy access to Junctions 24, 25 and 26 of the M1 motorway. The main A52 is located close by which links directly with Junction 25 on the M1. The immediate surrounding area is predominantly industrial/commercial with surrounding occupiers along Lenton Lane including Games Workshop, Brooks Brothers, Nottingham Textile Group, Bampton Packaging, Big Yellow Self Storage, Kuehne & Nagel, Screwfix, Tile Giant and Formula One Autocentres. There are a number of car showrooms along Lenton Lane to include BMW/Mini, Honda, Sytner and Ferrari, together with the University of Nottingham King's Meadow Campus.

There is a new tramline along Lenton Lane which has significantly improved the public transport network around the immediate vicinity to Easter Park.
