

St. Nicholas Nursery

Weekly Toddler Newsletter- 08.11.2019.

This week children were encouraged to create their own owl babies art work for the display board using cotton balls, glue and googly eyes. Children also shared their favorite bed time story during our show and tell, which will continue this whole of November every Wednesday. Reading a bed time story with children can be fun and learning experience for children.