

Business

BUSINESS NOTES

Dreyfoos to discuss his pictures at Photographic Centre

Jane Fetterly

Please send news for the Business notes column to Jane Fetterly at the Palm Beach Daily News, 400 Royal Palm Way, Suite 100, Palm Beach, FL 33480; or email to songbirdjane@bellsouth.net.

Alexander W. Dreyfoos, owner of The Dreyfoos Group, a private capital management firm that developed from his Photo Electronics Corp., will speak at 7 p.m. Jan. 2 at the Palm Beach Photographic Centre. His photographs are part of the current exhibition, "ALBUM 2012: Memories from Friends of the Photographic Centre." The lecture is free. For reservations, call 253-2600. The Photo Centre is at 415 Clematis St. in West Palm Beach.

Dreyfoos Speech at 7 p.m. Jan. 2 exhibition will be on view through Jan. 5.

London exhibit — Darryl Davidoff of Davidoff Studios announced he has been contacted by Proud Galleries in London about a proposed photography exhibit to take place there next year. The show would focus on the 50th anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. It would feature historic photos taken by the late Bob Davidoff, who chronicled the lives of the Kennedy clan for more than 40 years when they were on the island.

Law firm expands — Leslie Robert Evans & Associates, 214 Brazilian Ave., announced the appointment of two new members of the law firm, Daniel Hershman and Jason P. Dollard. Hershman will serve as "of counsel." He has extensive experience as a litigator and trial lawyer. Before entering private practice, he worked for W.R. Grace & Co. Dollard, an award-winning attorney, resides in Delray Beach and is a member of the board of directors of the Delray Beach Chamber of Commerce. He will join the firm's litigation team.

New director — Carla Duhaney has been named director of education and exhibits at the South Florida Science Museum in West Palm Beach. She previously served for three years as a science educator there. She will be responsible for educational programs and exhibit development.

Anniversary party — Rappunzel's Closet, at 326 S. County Road, is hosting a 10th anniversary party for clients and visitors at 6 p.m. Thursday. The event is free. For information, call 659-5302.